(Benefiting Palm Beach

Community College's Summer Youth College)

Thursday, July 30

5:00pm - 7:00pm

Palm Beach Community College in Boca Raton's Summer Youth College (SYC) - and

MedExpress Urgent Care are delighted to announce their partnership for Boca Festival Days.

Summer Youth College 2009 is a program for children between the ages of 8 and 14, who choose from over 100 "edutaining" classes in areas such as art, culture, language, dance, fitness, crafts, music, computers, social sciences and more. Future Leadership Boca, a part of Summer Youth College, focuses on leadership activities for 14 year olds, and is based on the Greater Boca Raton Chamber of Commerce's Leadership Boca program.

Over 300 students will "show off" what they have learned over the summer! The Festival Finale will be held at PBCC (3000 Saint Lucie Ave., Boca Raton, FL 33431), in the new Countess de Hoernle Humanities and Technology Building, Room HT 103. The event will be attended by parents, friends, local dignitaries and those who have supported SYC over the years. There will be food and we will raffle off our very own SYC teepee and community art quilt. Tell your family and friends. You will not want to miss it! Get your tickets, now!

Tickets for this event are free to SYC students and two of their family members. Tickets to the public are $5.00 each and are available at Palm Beach Community College, Room CB 103. A percentage of all proceeds will go to sponsorships for next year's students. Please call Elke at 561.862.4728 for details.

Lend Your Voice to Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic®

(RFB&D®) Presented by Ameriprise
(Benefiting Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic® - RFB&D®)

Saturday, August 1
10:00am – 2:00pm

Recording for the Blind and Dyslexic® (RFB&D®), the 60+ year national nonprofit leader in providing accessible educational materials for individuals with print disabilities, will host an Open House sponsored by Ameriprise at its studio located on the Florida Atlantic University's Boca Raton campus (777 Glades Rd., Boca Raton, FL 33431) in the Gladys Davis Pavilion, Bldg. 49.

At noon, Mayor Susan Whelchel will receive an award on behalf of the City of Boca Raton in recognition of the City's support of RFB&D over the years. For more information and to RSVP, please call: 561.297.4444 or email: bocavolunteers@rfd-florida.org.

Visitors to the RFB&D's Open House will receive a tour of the facility, learn about the production process and even have the opportunity to be "guest readers". With the support of the organization's local volunteers, RFB&D's provides services to more than 140,000 students throughout the state of Florida, from elementary through graduate school and beyond. RFB&D's local volunteers are an intricate part of the entire production process including reading and recording digital audio textbooks produced by the Boca Raton operation.

During our Open-House in August (for a mere $35 donation), we will list on our Florida Unit webpage all donors, businesses, and people who make it possible. Visit www.rfd.org/Florida\_Unit.htm now to make your contribution!

RFB&D serves nearly a quarter of a million students from kindergarten through graduate school and beyond who cannot read standard print due to a visual impairment and blindness, learning disability such as dyslexia, or other physical disabilities. Students rely on RFB&D to access the printed page and to achieve educational success. RFB&D's collection of digitally recorded textbooks and literature, available on CD or through Internet download, are proven, effective learning tools for students with disabilities.

Guided Tour of the Historic Boca Raton Resort & Club

(Benefiting the Boca Raton Historical Society & Museum)

Saturdays: August 1, 8, 15, 22, and 29
2:00pm - 3:30pm

A guided tour of the historic Boca Raton Resort & Club (501 E. Camino Real), originally built by Addison Mizner in 1926, will be conducted every Saturday in August (1, 8, 15, 22, and 29) at 2:00pm by Boca Raton Historical Society docents. An informative and entertaining 90 minute walking tour of the famous Boca Raton Resort & Club highlights the story of Addison Mizner, his architectural inspiration, and a look at the hotel's evolution since the 1920s. The cost at $12 per person ($10 for BRHS members) benefits the Boca Raton Historical Society. An additional $9 per car valet parking is requisite by the Boca Raton Resort & Club. Advance reservations are required through the Boca Raton Historical Society & Museum. Walking shoes are suggested and tour is not recommended for children under 12. For reservations and more information, contact the Boca Raton Historical Society & Museum at 561.395.6766 ext. 101 or visit www.bocahistory.org/tours.

Grab a Coffee & Run Benefiting AVDA (Benefiting AVDA - Aid Victims of Domestic Abuse)

Wednesday, August 5

8:30am

Grab a Coffee & Run benefiting AVDA (Aid Victims of Domestic Abuse) will be held on Wednesday, August 5 at 8:30am at the New Wyndham Hotel (1950 Glades Road, Boca Raton, FL 33431) in the Garden Café on the second level. This event's Boca Festival Days sponsor is Sunshine Self Storage.

A healthy continental breakfast will be served and hosted by the New Wyndham Hotel. Featuring: Raffles! Sponsor Challenge! Networking!

Come learn more about AVDA and our 10th Annual 5K Run / Walk By the Sea, which will be held on Saturday, October 10, 2009.

For more information, contact Tammy at 561.265.3797 ext. 118. RSVP by July 29th but drop-ins welcome. Any donations will be greatly appreciated.

AVDA promotes violence-free relationships and social change by offering alternative choices to end violence and domestic abuse. Prevention through education, advocacy and intervention is the ultimate goal of AVDA. All survivors of family violence should be provided with a safe haven. They must be treated with dignity and their right to self-determination encouraged. Interventions which blame the victim and do not hold the abuser accountable are inappropriate. AVDA will encourage and advance the empowerment of survivors and seek social change by addressing the existing imbalance of power within violent relationships.

Mission Possible (Benefiting Florence Fuller Child Development Centers) Thursday, August 6

6:00pm - 8:30pm

Florence Fuller Child Development Centers will host the popular "Mission Possible", a competitive scavenger hunt to take place in the Town Center at Boca Raton on Thursday, August 6th at 6:00 pm. Teams of "super agents" will be on special assignment to solve a mystery while gathering top-secret information or objects from participating stores throughout the Mall.

Teams of four are encouraged but individuals are also welcomed and will be matched with other solo sleuths to form an investigation team. Cost to participate is $35 per person or $125 for a team of four. Unless sold out, the on-site registration fee is $40 per person or $150 for a four-person team. Entry fees include admission to Shaken not Stirred, the not-to-be missed post-hunt party, featuring delicious appetizers from your favorite restaurants, drinks, awards for the winning teams and raffle prizes. Non-detectives may purchase tickets for the lively post-hunt party from 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm. Tickets are $25 in advance and $30 at the door.

This interactive event is one of the highlights of Boca Festival Days organized by the Greater Boca Raton Chamber of Commerce. Kristen Bomas, P.A. and Town Center at Boca Raton are co-sponsors of the fun-filled evening, marking the fifth year of Mission Possible.

To purchase tickets for the scavenger hunt or party, please call Cheryl Brower at FFDC, 561-391-7274 ext. 122 or go to www.ffcdc.org to download a registration form.

Proceeds from Mission Possible will benefit Florence Fuller Child Development Centers in Boca Raton. Their CEO, Doug Paton, said, "We are thrilled to be the host and beneficiary of this exciting event and encourage all of our friends and supporters to join the scavenger hunt. Through events like this we are able to provide 625 disadvantaged children with the educational foundation that will allow them to succeed in kindergarten and beyond." Florence Fuller Child Development Centers provides quality childcare, early education, family support programs and is the only Head Start preschool in Boca Raton. They prepare children for a lifetime commitment to learning and social achievement, while empowering their families to build a brighter future.

The American Red Cross, a humanitarian organization led by volunteers and guided by its Congressional Charter and the Fundamental Principles of the International Red Cross Movement, provides relief to victims of disasters and helps people prevent, prepare for, and respond to emergencies.

Bon Festival (Benefiting the Morikami Mu- seum & Japanese Gardens) Saturday, August 8

5:00pm - 9:00pm

Inspired by Obon, Japan's traditional three-day holiday honoring ancestors and thanking them for the quality of life enjoyed by the living, The Morikami celebrates Bon Festival in one fun-packed evening at Morikami Museum & Japanese Gardens (4000 Morikami Park Road, Delray Beach, FL 33446). Highlights include rousing taiko drum performances, traditional Japanese folk dancing with audience participation, and a street fair with games and vendor booths. The highlight of the evening begins at sunset when Morikami Pond is transformed into a tranquil sea of lighted lanterns which, in accordance with Japanese custom, guide the departure of ancestors' souls who have come for a brief visit among the living. A special fireworks display caps the enchanting evening. The Morikami's Boca Festival Days sponsor this year is Handyman Connection.

Admission is $10 adults (18 and over), $5 children (4-17), and is free for museum members and children 3 and under (no special senior discounts are available). To purchase tickets online, please visit www.morikami.org/bon. Group tickets are available for a discounted rate. For information on group sales, please call 561.495.0233 ext. 214.

There will be on-site food vendors serving a variety of food items. The Morikami's own Cornell Cafe will also be open and serving Pan-Asian favorites. On-site parking is provided FREE of charge. There are no ATM's on the grounds of the Morikami. Please plan accordingly.

Lantern sleeves for the Toro Nagashi (lantern floating) ceremony will be on sale starting at 5:00pm the night of the event. The cost is $10 per sleeve and is the perfect way to honor and remember a lost loved one. There is a limited amount of sleeves available and they cannot be purchased in advance. Make sure to get yours early in the evening as they sell out every year!

This event is held outdoors and is rain or shine. There is a lot of walking involved and most of the activities are on grass - please be sure to wear comfortable shoes and clothing as August tends to be a very hot month in Florida and the walk from your car to the festival grounds may be lengthy. For further event information, please call 561.495.0233 ext. 200.

National Tooth Fairy Day (Benefiting The Children's Museum of Boca Raton)

Monday, August 10

4:00pm - 8:00pm

Ever wonder what the Tooth Fairy looks like? The Children's Museum of Boca Raton and COSTCO are teaming up with participating local dentists to celebrate National Tooth Fairy Day at the COSTCO store at 17800 Congress Ave., Boca Raton, FL 33487 on Monday, August 10, 2009 from 4:00pm - 8:00pm. This event is part of Boca Festival Days, a series of fun-filled events held at different locations during the month of August, which is organized by the Greater Boca Raton Chamber of Commerce. There is no charge to come out for a visit with the Tooth Fairy and enjoy activities and refreshments. Bring a note from your dentist and the Tooth Fairy will have a special certificate for you. To welcome the Tooth Fairy, the co-sponsors want to display your art work at The Children's Museum, 498 Crawford Blvd., Boca Raton, FL 33432. The most beautiful smiles are those on children's faces; and all children are encouraged to have regular dental exams. For more information please contact Jayne Morrison at The Children's Museum, 498 Crawford Blvd., Boca Raton, FL 33432; 561.368.6875.

The Children's Museum of Boca Raton is a private 501(c)(3) non-profit. Our mission is to stimulate creative and critical thinking skills in children through exposure to the arts, history, science, and humanities. The Museum is housed in "Singing Pines" (circa 1912), an original wooden home of Boca Raton: and has provided arts education to children and affordable family entertainment with interactive exhibits, programs, and events for the past 30 years.

Caldwell Theatre Company's Opening Night Champagne Reception (Benefiting the Caldwell Theatre)

Friday, August 14

8:00pm

Caldwell's opening night champagne reception, which follows the 8:00pm performance of "The Whipping Man", is sponsored by the Embassy Suites Hotel - Boca Raton.

The Summer Play, The Whipping Man by Matthew Lopez, runs August 12 through August 30 (Wednesday, Saturday, Sunday Matinees at 2:00pm and Wednesday through Saturday Evenings at 8:00pm).

Plot: A badly wounded confederate soldier returns to his Jewish plantation on the last day of the Civil War. He encounters his former slaves, also Jewish, and begs them to take care of him. Over the course of three days, secrets are revealed that will irrevocably impact all of their lives. Author Matthew Lopez has penned an overwhelmingly powerful and poignant piece of theater examining the ramifications of choice and responsibility. The final climax, set to the backdrop of a Passover Seder, will resonate with you long after.

Prices range from $38 to $47.50 per person. The Caldwell Theatre Company in the Count de Hoernle Theatre relocated to 7901 N. Federal Highway, Boca

Raton, FL 33487 in December of 2007. Now the oldest professional theater in South Florida, this multiple award-winning regional theater's new building was designed to reflect the positive attributes of Caldwell's former intimate-friendly theater with the latest in lighting and sound engineering, cutting edge acoustics and comfort.

Come to Caldwell and see fabulous theater in a magnificent structure. There is no other venue in South Florida that compares with the new Count de Hoernle Theatre.

Passionately Pink: A Beauty Event for the Cure

(Benefiting the American Cancer Society)

Tuesday, August 18

6:00pm - 8:00pm

Making Strides Against Breast Cancer of Boca Raton is announcing that "Passionately Pink: A Beauty Event for The Cure" will be hosted by Sanctuary Medical Aesthetic Center (SMAC) Tuesday, August 18 from 6:00pm - 8:00pm at 4800 N. Federal Highway in Boca Raton, FL.

The free event will feature silent auction packages from SMAC and other popular area businesses, with values ranging from $100 to $1,000 and prizes including a date for two, salon makeover, art, boutique accessories, and travel packages, and will evoke the calming, care-free atmosphere of Coastal High Society of the 1950s. 10% of the night's proceeds will go towards Making Strides, and all businesses giving out coupons at the event will donate a portion of any purchases made with them.

Breast reconstruction specialist Dr. Hilton Becker will provide free consultations to women who've had or are planning mastectomies, and there will also be experts on hand to discuss areola and nipple reconstruction and re-pigmentation.

Specials on procedures and treatments will be offered throughout the night by SMAC, along with free food and beverages, an outdoor lounge area from Lux Magazine, mini-makeovers, and pink fashions from Lilly Pulitzer.

It'sJust4Kids was established in 1991 as a community-based volunteer effort serving children in need of aid. Its mission is to provide services and programs to all children enduring hardship situations - such as homelessness, loss of a parent, illness, neglect, family financial burden - in order to help them attain positive personal growth, confidence, and self-esteem. In the past year alone, over 1,100 children in Palm Beach County received items such as new clothing, shoes, school uniforms, school supplies, hygiene items, and Graduation/Prom/Homecoming attire. Both the Monroe County and Palm Beach County School Districts have recognized the effectiveness and efficiency of the programs administered by ItsJust4Kids, and have applauded and recommended it for its unparalleled value to the community and dedication to the development of our children.

Samuel Brandwein, CFP, CIMA

In order to continue our current programs and services, ItsJust4Kids is dependent upon the generosity and support of our community. We thank our event sponsor, Samuel Brandwein, CFP, CIMA, and our host, Blue Martini, for helping to raise awareness of our founation while also raising the funds necessary to continue assisting the children of Palm Beach County.

CITY OF BOCA RATON EVENTS DURING BOCA FESTIVAL DAYS

Summer Music in the Park Series Featuring "Tribute to Neil Diamond"

Friday, July 31
7:00pm - 9:00pm

The sound of "Sweet Caroline" will be heard at the Mizner Park Amphitheater, as ROB GARRETT and the King of Diamonds Band pays tribute to Mr. Neil Diamond. The tribute will feature music of the 67-year-old singer who grew up as a child of Tin Pan Alley before becoming one of the most commercially successful singer-songwriters of all time. With a new album completed this past year, along with a Fort Lauderdale live concert by Mr. Diamond last October, it is very fitting that his easy-listening music performed by KING OF DIAMONDS be enjoyed by concertgoers who attend the summer music series.

It all takes place at one of Boca Raton's favorite outdoor entertainment spots, Mizner Park Amphitheater. Enjoy this free concert sponsored by the City of Boca Raton, Aurora Nurses Home Health Care, and Florida Health & Chiropractic Medicine. Bring along a blanket or chair (chair rentals are also available for $2 donation), relax and enjoy the best of entertainment under the stars for the entire family. Food is available for purchase.
